BULL NELSON SHOT IN LOUISVILLE.

BULL SENT TO INDIANAPOLIS, IND.

BLOCKADE OPENED; BUILT IN ENGLAND.

The PREPARATIONS OF McCLELLAN FOR CROSSING

TO VIRGINIA.

A letter in the Philadelphia Advertiser, dated Sunday last, the 24th, says every road and lane there is filled with baggage wagons and artillery. It says:

The small vessels of the locomotive is again heard. Supplies of all kinds are now being transported over the railroad to this point. The telegraph is being repaired, and large gauge iron-work has commenced removing the railings of the railroad bridge which was destroyed by the rebels. A temporary bridge similar to the one at the Potomac, is to be thrown across the Potomac. It will be ready for trains to pass over in about a week.

The boats of the pontoon bridge have already arrived. They will immediately be placed in position. Immense numbers of soldiers have forced the Potomac, being no means of conveyance across the river at present. They swear vengeance, and retaliation upon the rebels for their vandalism.

The address of the Governors' Convention to Lincoln is not to be made public. Reports from Richmond say, that the Yell Fever is raging fearfully there.

Stocks were rampant in New York on Monday, and prices went up fearfully.

FORTRESS NEWS.—The steamer Anglo-Saxon has arrived at New York.

In France and England the defeat of Pope at Magenta was universally regarded as fatal to the French.

A powerful ram was openly built in the Moray, to be used in opening the blockade of Charleston.

FROM MISSISSIPPI.

A SKIRMISH WITH THE ENEMY.

MOBILE, Oct. 2.—A special dispatch to the Advertiser and Register, dated Mobile, Oct. 24, says sixty Yankee cavalry scouts, yesterday penetrated to the railroad, two miles south of Baldwin, and cut the telegraph wire. They were attacked by about twenty-five of the 2d Tennessee cavalry, routed and driven off with a loss of seven killed and two prisoners. One long and two killed—none wounded.

CONGRESSIONAL.—RICHMOND, Oct. 2.—The Senate to-day refused to agree to the amendments of the House Emancipation bill, and asked for a committee for conference.

The House bill appropriating a million of dollars for the construction of the Blue Mountain and Rome Railroad was passed.

Also, the Senate bill to provide for the transmission of the trans-Mississippi mail.

At 1 o'clock the Senate went into secret session to consider the order of the day, being the bill to repress the atrocities of the enemy. Nothing of importance done when the door was reopened. Several communications from the President were presented.

The House was occupied nearly all day in the discussion of the bill to raise revenue.

FROM NASHVILLE.

Every arrival from the neighborhood of our unfortunate capital confirms the report of the destruction of its inhabitants.

From the Dispatch of the 30th we learn that the steamer Forrest those left Nashville on Saturday with about forty passengers, but was captured Sunday night a few miles below, by the rebels, and all aboard submitted to a devastating examination. Another steamer, Enterprise, says it was fitting up to go down, and will carry two small pieces of artillerie.

An engagement between a company of partisans and a foraging party of the Federals at Hart's Ferry on Wednesday morning. The Yankees were driven into Nashville with a loss of seven or eight killed and wounded. No report of any loss on our side.

A Green Ribbon.—A gentleman related to us the following little incident, which we think too good to be lost.

At Vicksburg, a few days since, there were several hundred Federal prisoners to be exchanged, and among them some thirty or forty officers, who were confined under guard.

The Sunday morning, at the same hour, the captain, who commanded the guard, when she (the Sunday) "gave" orders, said in command that he had an engagement with a lady to escort her to church, and he must go. A boy, with son of the Confederacy, who was one of my crew of Bragg, notwithstanding the imminent excess of our transportation over that of the enemy.
